UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARIA C. BLAS

Defendant.

CRIMINAL CASE NO. 07-00061

AMENDED
PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A), the United States and the defendant, MARIA C. BLAS, enter into the following plea agreement:

1. The defendant agrees to waive Indictment pursuant to Federal Criminal Procedure Rule 7(b), and enter a guilty plea to an Information charging her with False Entry in Bank Records, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1005. If the Court accepts her guilty plea the government agrees not to prosecute the defendant for other offenses committed by her in her capacity as an officer and employee of Bank Pacific on Guam.

2. The defendant understands that the maximum sentence for False Entry in Bank Records is incarceration for not more than 30 years and a $1,000,000 fine. Any sentence imposed may include a term of supervised release of not more than 5 years in addition to such term of imprisonment, as well as, such restitution as the court may order and a $100 special assessment fee. The $100 special assessment fee must be paid at the time the defendant enters

1 her guilty plea. If the defendant violates a condition of supervised release at any time prior to the 2 expiration of such term, the court may revoke the term of supervised release and sentence her to 3 an additional 3 years of incarceration pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3).

4 The defendant understands that the Court may impose a fine pursuant to the Sentencing 5 Reform Act of 1984. If defendant is financially unable to immediately pay the fine in full,
6 defendant agrees to make a full disclosure of her financial status to the United States Attorney's
7 Office by completing a Financial Disclosure Form (OBD-500) for purpose of fixing a monthly
8 payment schedule. Defendant understands that, by law, interest accrues on any remaining 9 balance of the debt.

10 3. The defendant agrees that she will consent to an Order of Prohibition pursuant to 11 Section 8(e) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e), by entering into a 12 Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Order of Prohibition with the Office of Thrift 13 Supervision.

14 4. The defendant understands that to establish the offense of False Entry in bank 15 Records, a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1005, the government must prove 16 each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

17 First: That Bank Pacific was a federally insured bank;

18 Second: That the defendant made or caused to be made a false entry in a book or 19 record of Bank Pacific;

20 Third: That the defendant did so knowing it was false; and 21 Fourth: That the defendant ~~intending~~ <sup>intended</sup> to injure or deceive Bank Pacific.

22 5. The defendant understands that the Sentencing Guidelines apply to this offense. The 23 defendant also understands that the facts she stipulates to herein will be used among other things, 24 to determine her sentence.

25 The defendant understands that notwithstanding any agreement of the parties, the United 26 States Probation Office will make an independent application of the Sentencing Guidelines. The 27 defendant acknowledges that should there be discrepancies in the final sentencing guidelines'

1 range projected by her counsel or any other person, such discrepancy is not a basis to withdraw 2 her guilty plea.

3 6. The government and the defendant stipulate and agree to the following facts:

4 The defendant was born on November 18, 1954 and is a citizen of the United States.

5 At all times material to the offence charged in the Information, Bank Pacific which was a 6 federally insured financial institution on Guam and the defendant was an officer and employee of 7 Bank Pacific. On March 24, 2006, the defendant deposited a $5000 check, no. 1143, in an 8 account of Francis P. Cruz ( "Cruz") at Bank Pacific. The check was drawn on Cruz's account 9 at Woodforest National Bank ("Woodforest"), a Texas bank. Cruz is the defendant's sister. On 10 March 29, 2006 Woodforest received the $5000 check and on April 11, 2006 physically returned
11 the check to Bank Pacific due to insufficient funds in Cruz's account at Woodforest. On April 12 11, 2006 the defendant approved the check for reprocessing, i.e., sending the check to 13 Woodforest a second time. At the same time, however, the defendant did not remove the $5000
14 from Cruz's account at Bank Pacific resulting in the status of the account being falsely stated.
15 The defendant's actions prevented Cruz's account from going into overdraft status and prevented
16 other checks drawn on Cruz's Bank Pacific account from being dishonored due to insufficient
17 funds. The government is aware of 17 other overdraft checks drawn on Cruz's Woodforest 18 account being treated the same way by the defendant.

19 7. The defendant understands that this plea agreement depends on the fullness and 20 truthfulness of her cooperation. Therefore, defendant understands and agrees that if she should 21 fail to fulfill completely each and every one of her obligations under this plea agreement, or make 22 material omissions or intentional misstatements or engage in criminal conduct after the entry of 23 her plea agreement and before sentencing, the government will be free from its obligations under 24 the plea agreement; thus defendant, in addition to standing guilty of the matters to which she has 25 pled pursuant to this agreement, shall also be fully subject to criminal prosecution for other 26 crimes, and for the counts which were to be dismissed. In any such prosecution, the prosecuting 27 authorities, whether federal, state, or local, shall be free to use against her, without limitation, any 28 and all information, in whatever form, that she has provided pursuant to this plea agreement or

1 otherwise; defendant shall not assert any claim under the United States Constitution, any statute, 2 Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of 3 Evidence, or any other provision of law, to attempt to bar such use of the information.

4 8. If defendant's guilty plea is rejected, withdrawn, vacated, or reversed at any time, the 5 United States will be free to prosecute the defendant for all charges of which it then has knowl-6 edge, and any charges that have been dismissed will be automatically reinstated or may be 7 represented to a grand jury with jurisdiction over the matter. In such event, defendant waives any 8 objections, motions or defenses based upon the Statute of Limitations, Speedy Trial Act, or 9 constitutional restrictions as to the time of bringing such charges.

10 9. In the event that the United States believes the defendant has failed to fulfill any of her
11 obligations under this Agreement, then the United States shall, in its discretion, have the option 12 of declaring any provision of this Agreement or its obligations herein null and void. Whether or 13 not the defendant has completely fulfilled all of the obligations under this Agreement shall be 14 determined by the Court in an appropriate proceeding at which any disclosures and documents 15 provided by the defendant shall be admissible and at which the United States shall be required to 16 establish any breach by a preponderance of the evidence. In order to establish any breach by the 17 defendant, the United States is entitled to rely on statements and evidence given by the defendant
18 during the cooperation phase of this Agreement.

19 10. Nothing in this Agreement shall protect the defendant in any way from prosecution
20 for any offense committed after the date of this Agreement. Should the defendant be charged 21 with any offense alleged to have occurred after the date of this Agreement, the information and 22 documents disclosed to the United States during the course of the cooperation could be used 23 against the defendant in any such prosecution.

24 11. Nothing in this Agreement shall bind any other federal, state or local Districts, 25 jurisdiction or law enforcement agency other than the United States Attorney for the District of 26 Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands.

1           12. In exchange for the Government's concessions in this Plea Agreement, the defendant
2 waives any right to appeal this conviction or to collaterally attack this conviction. Defendant 3 reserves the right to appeal the sentence imposed in this case.

4           13. This agreement is not contingent in any way upon the outcome of any investigation, 5 proceeding or subsequent trial. Thus, none of the rights and obligations described above are in 6 any way dependent upon a grand jury returning an indictment, a jury's verdict at any trial, or the 7 success of any prosecution.

8           14. The defendant acknowledges that she has been advised of her rights as set forth
9 below prior to entering into this plea agreement. Specifically, defendant has been fully advised 10 of, has had sufficient opportunity to reflect upon, and understands the following:

11           a. the nature and elements of the charges and the mandatory minimum penalty 12 provided by law and the maximum possible penalty provided by law;

13           b. her right to be represented by an attorney;

14           c. her right to plead not guilty and the right to be tried by a jury and at that trial, the 15 right to be represented by counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against her,
16 and the right not to be compelled to incriminate herself, that is, the right not to testify;

17           d. that if she pleads guilty, there will not be a further trial of any kind on the charges to 18 which such plea is entered so that by entering into this plea agreement, she waives, that is, gives 19 up, the right to a trial;

20           e. that, upon entry of a plea of guilty, or thereafter, the Court may ask her questions
21 about the offenses to which she has pled, under oath, and that if she answers these questions 22 under oath, on the record, her answers may later be used against her in prosecution for perjury or 23 false statement if an answer is untrue;

24           f. that she agrees that the plea agreement is voluntary and not a result of any force, 25 threats or promises apart from this plea agreement;

26           g. that she reads, speaks, writes and understands English;

27           h. that she has read this agreement, and she fully understands it; and

1 i. the defendant is satisfied with the representation of her lawyer and feels that her 2 lawyer has done everything possible for her defense.

3 16. This Plea Agreement states the complete and only Agreement between the United 4 States Attorney for the District of Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands and the defendant, 5 supersedes all prior understandings, if any, whether written or oral, and cannot be modified other 6 than by a writing that is signed by all parties or is on the record in Court. No other promises or 7 inducements have been or will be made to the defendant in connection with this case, nor have 8 any predictions or threats been made in connection with this plea.
